

BOARD OF MANAGEMENT CODE OF CONDUCT

Every member of the Fremantle Women's Health Centre Board is expected to comply with the Code of Conduct determined by the Board from time to time.

The Code of Conduct is as follows:

- 1) The member should act honestly, in good faith and in the best interests of the association as a whole.
- 2) The member has a duty to use due care and diligence in fulfilling the functions of office and exercising the powers attached to that office.
- 3) The member should use the powers of office for a proper purpose, in the best interests of the association as a whole.
- 4) The member should recognise that the primary responsibility is to the association as a whole but may, where appropriate, have regard for the interest of all stakeholders of the association.
- 5) The member should not make improper use of information acquired as a member.
- 6) The member should not take improper advantage of the position of member.
- 7) The member should properly manage any conflict with the interests of the association.
- 8) The member has an obligation to be independent in judgement and actions and to take all reasonable steps to be satisfied as to the soundness of all decisions taken by the Board.
- 9) Confidential information received by the member in the course of the exercise of their duties remains the property of the company/association from which it was obtained and it is improper to disclose it, or allow it to be disclosed, unless that disclosure has been authorised by that company/association, or the person from whom the information is provided, or is required by law.
- 10) The member should not engage in conduct likely to bring discredit upon the association.
- 11) The member has an obligation, at all times, to comply with the spirit, as well as the letter, of the law and with the principles of this Code.
